

Bilingual journalist focused on public-interest reporting at the intersection of policy, labour, immigration, housing, affordability and government accountability. My work examines how political decisions and economic systems shape workers, students, migrants and local communities. I bring a background in political science, banking and compliance to reporting on power, regulation and institutional responsibility.

JOURNALISM & MEDIA EXPERIENCE

Producer — CAJ Unplugged, Voices in Durham 2025

SEPT – NOV 2025

Durham College

- Lead editorial planning, production logistics and promo strategy across three cornerstone events: Indigenous Voices in Durham, Voices in Journalism and CAJ Unplugged.
- Apply photography, video production, editing, reporting and interviewing skills end-to-end.

Multimedia Student Journalist

JAN 2025 – APR 2026

The Chronicle · Durham College & Ontario Tech University

- Report on affordability, labour, immigration, post-secondary finance, housing, small business, local government and public policy.
- Interview sources across government, business, labour, education and community organizations.
- Develop source-driven digital and print stories with public-interest, policy-impact and accountability angles.
- Apply editorial judgment, source development and newsroom standards in deadline-driven settings.

Audio & Video Assistant Technician (Volunteer)

2025

Riot Radio · Durham College

- Support live broadcasts and recording sessions for campus radio programming.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Customer Experience Associate

2024 – PRESENT

TD Bank

- Build frontline experience in retail banking, customer needs, financial products, compliance expectations and communication under pressure.
- Support clients in a regulated financial environment requiring accuracy, discretion and clear communication.
- Develop transferable experience in problem-solving, trust-building and explaining financial processes to everyday consumers.

SELECTED WORK

What the 2026 provincial budget means for Durham Region

The Chronicle · Apr 2026

Farm workers 'temporary' but essential: industry experts

The Chronicle · Apr 2026

Controversial provincial Skills Development Fund brings cash to DC, but legal expert questions the politics

The Chronicle · Dec 2025

Ontario's homelessness bill fails amid growing housing crisis

The Chronicle · Nov 2025

Ontario's post-secondary crisis: Overreliance on international students and the path forward

The Chronicle · Mar 2025

EDUCATION

Durham College, Ontario

Diploma, Journalism — Mass Media

Expected 2026 · GPA 4.3 · Winter 2025 College Honour Roll
Coursework finished — pending field placement.

National Open & Distance University (UNAD), Colombia

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science

GPA 4.6 · Coursework finished, pending graduation

Focus: International Relations, Geopolitics, Emerging Political Theory. Relevant: Fundamentals & International Economics, Economic Policy, Public Finance, Colombian Economy.

Advanced Diploma

Diplomacy and International Relations

SELECTED CERTIFICATIONS

- Certificate in Compliance — International Compliance Association
- Diploma in Political Communication — University of Buenos Aires
- FinTech Law and Policy — Duke University
- The Essence of Public Policy & its Analysis — Public Policy Institute
- International Geopolitics Analysis — Andes University
- International Political Analyst — LISA Institute

SKILLS

REPORTING Public-interest journalism, accountability reporting, feature writing, interviewing, source development, editing, photography, videography, audio recording, live broadcasts and multimedia storytelling.

BEATS Labour, immigration, housing, affordability, post-secondary education, local government, public policy, business, financial systems and institutional accountability.

DATA & DIGITAL Workflow automation, spreadsheets, SQL, data visualization, digital publishing and interactive storytelling.

LANGUAGES English and Spanish.

MEMBERSHIPS

CAJ — Membership Committee · Latin Business Network
Durham — Advisory Committee · SABEW · RTDNA